1. This agreement constitutes an order for wedding photography services. It is understood that digital files may be used for advertising, display or any purpose thought proper by the photographer. Uses may include posting to photographers website, Facebook, or advertising through print, bridal show or other mediums. Online photos may be watermarked with copyright information. Bride and Groom's photo gallery will be password protected to prevent unauthorized access. Bride and Groom agree to hold photographer harmless for any unauthorized access or distribution of watermarked or password protected photos or galleries. Photos delivered to bridal couple via flash/thumb drive are not protected and do not contain any watermark.
2. Although utmost care will be given with the creation of digital images, photographer limits any liability for loss, damage or failure to deliver images as a result of any mechanical or equipment malfunction or photographer error to return of payments made. Contracting wedding party (bride, groom and/or third party) agrees, by signature on this contract, that they understand this is a binding legal agreement, and they have viewed photographer's website and/or viewed photographer's products in person and are comfortable with photographer's style and quality of work. If, in the estimation of the bride and groom, photographer has not made a reasonable effort to deliver quality photographs, wedding party agrees maximum liability for photographer will be limited to the return of payments made and also agree that no legal action or other claims against photographer will be taken. After photography is completed, all digital images will be transferred to dual external hard drives for archiving purposes. Mechanical failure of hard drives happens, and photographer does not guarantee extended storage of photos. Wedding couple also agrees not to hold photographer responsible for poor photographs made in inclement weather conditions and/or un-photographic situations or venues.
3. Upon signature and receipt of agreement and deposit, photographer reserves the time and date agreed upon, and will not make other reservations for that time and date. Deposits are non-refundable if date is changed or photography is canceled for any reason. Payments made in excess of the deposit will be refunded.
4. In the event of unforeseen emergency in which photographer can not photograph wedding, photographer will make reasonable effort to arrange for a substitute professional photographer to conduct photography. If no professional substitute is available, bridal party agrees to limit damages to full refund of payments made. Maximum photographer liability FOR ANY REASON BY ANY PARTY shall be limited to payments made. By an individual's signature, bridal party agrees that they fully understand and agree to all terms of this legally binding agreement.
